4/9/2025 22:02:38	The hands on labs		The second day felt a little redundant because of the amount of time spent on the first day. The referral procedures also fell out of the second day. I think the second day could have been great. Perhaps a more effective would be to have the second day be a continuation of the first day. Class on radiographs, oral exams, or common procedures. In addition, the hands on lab could be extended to 2 days so as to perform while the material is fresh.	It was difficult to see any of the demonstrations because of the amount of time spent on the first day. It would be cool if you could incorporate a some kind of Q&A session after each demonstration. Class on radiographs, oral exams, or common procedures. In addition, the hands on lab could have been more helpful if my questions were answered in a timely manner.	4 Access to learning materials like videos, afterwards would be sweet resources. Even if they could add additional Q&A in the end. I'm sure many would pay.	Everyone was very helpful and kind. They also provided for learning environment.	Too advanced	Dental radiograph interpretation, oral exam and charting, common procedures, and referrals	Social media (Instagram, Facebook, etc.)	The hands-on format, Cost/affordability, CE credits	The level of training, I was asked if I was appropriate for inexperienced DVMs	More hands on time on breaking up the time in between the hands on time. More time for technique right after we learn about them.	Anesthesia, cardiology	Yes!	N/A - thanks for a great weekend!	Yes - the individual audience head and individualized approach. The hands on experience I also thought that the speakers were great. The "beneath" like drinks, meals, coffee, etc. made the experience enjoyable.	Individual equipment for each attendee
